JAKOB HUNOSØE

In Square Circle

May 15 - June 27, 2020

JOIN US FOR AN OPENING WEEKEND:

FRIDAY MAY 15

SATURDAY MAY 16

SUNDAY MAY 17

ALL DAYS 12 - 18 HRS

We continue to follow the recommendations of the health authorities and allow a maximum of 8 guests at a time, we have hand sanitizer and we keep a proper distance.

After the opening weekend we will follow our regular opening hours throughout the exhibition period: Tue-Fri 12 - 17:30, Sat 11-14.

With a distinct sense of noticing everyday objects and their form, Jakob Hunosøe manages to lure us into a completely permissible and at the same time completely dizzying world. As the title of his brand new book - In Square Circle - points out, Hunosøe freezes that moment, when we momentarily see a circle in the square.

The works of Jakob Hunosøe feature objects which most of us have in our homes: crayons, a mirror, a water bottle, a notepad. Objects which are not more than what they are meant to be used for. In turn, our attention is awakened when we look at Hunosøe's photographs. We become aware of the shape of things, of whether round are really round, whether things stand up or lie down, and whether they are there at all, in the arrangement, or if it is a shadow or a mirror image.

With great humor we are deceived when objects change scale, when they are juxtaposed and when distorted in water, mirror or glass. It is by using quite simple means these arrangements appear quite complex. And the humor occurs both as Jakob Hunosøe unfolds the deception, as he figures out how to communicate it, and as we discover that it is a moment of reality, not a manipulated photo, we have been presented with.

At a later time, when circumstances allow us, in the month of June, we will invite you to celebrate the book release of Jakob Hunosøe's new book, In Square Circle!
